For the purposes of paragraph (1) of this Article, the term "Indonesian tax payable" shall be deemed to include any amount which would have been payable as Indonesian tax for any year but for an exemption or reduction of tax granted for that year or any part thereof under:

Article 15 (5) and Article 16 (1) and (2) of Law No. 1 of 1967 of Indonesia, so far as they were in force on and have not been modified since the date of signature of this Agreement, or have been modified only in minor respect so as not to affect their general character; or any other provision which may subsequently be made granting an exemption or reduction of tax which is agreed by the competent authorities of the Contracting States to be of a substantially similar character, if it has not been modified thereafter or has been modified only in minor respects so as not to affect its general character.

(b)

Provided that relief from United Kingdom tax shall not be given by virtue of this paragraph in respect of income from any source if the income arises in a period starting more than ten years after the exemption from, or reduction of, Indonesian tax was first granted in respect of that source.

Indonesia, when imposing tax on residents of Indonesia may include in the basis upon which such taxes are imposed the items of income or capital which according to the provisions of this Agreement may be taxed in the United Kingdom.

4.

Subject to the provisions of paragraph (5) of this Article, Indonesia shall allow a deduction from the tax computed in conformity with paragraph (3) of this Article equal to such part of that tax which bears the same proportion to the aforesaid tax as the part of the income or capital which is included in the basis of that tax and may be taxed in the United Kingdom according to the provisions of this Agreement bears to the total income or capital which forms the basis for Indonesian tax.

Where a resident of Indonesia derives income which, in accordance with paragraph (1) of Article 11, paragraphs (2) and (3) of Article 12, and paragraph (2) of Article 13 may be taxed in the United Kingdom, Indonesia shall allow as a deduction from the Indonesian tax on the income of that person an amount equal to the tax paid in the United Kingdom on that income. Such deduction shall not, however, exceed that part of the Indonesian tax computed in conformity with paragraph (3) of this Article which is appropriate to the income derived from the United Kingdom.

6. Where a resident of Indonesia derives gains which may be taxed in the United Kingdom in accordance with Article 14, Indonesia shall allow a deduction from its tax on such gains to an amount equal to the tax levied in the United Kingdom on the said gains.
7. For the purposes of the preceding paragraphs of this Article income, profits and capital gains owned by a resident of a Contracting State which may be taxed in the other Contracting State in accordance with this Agreement shall be deemed to arise from sources in that other Contracting State.
8. Where profits on which an enterprise of a Contracting State has been charged to tax in that State are also included in the profits of an enterprise of the other State and the profits so included are profits which would have accrued to that enterprise of the other State if the conditions made between the enterprises had been those which would have been made between independent enterprises dealing wholly independently, the amount included in the profits of both enterprises shall be treated for the purposes of this Article as income from a source in the other State of the enterprise of the first-mentioned State and relief shall be given accordingly under the provisions of paragraph (1) or, as the case may be, paragraphs (4) and (5) of this Article.

Article 26 PERSONAL ALLOWANCES

1. Subject to the provisions of paragraph (3) of this Article, individuals who are residents of Indonesia shall be entitled to the same personal allowances, reliefs and reductions for the purposes of United Kingdom tax as British subjects not resident in the United Kingdom.
2. Subject to the provisions of paragraph (3) of this Article, individuals who are residents of the United Kingdom shall be entitled to the same personal allowances, reliefs and reductions for the purposes of Indonesian tax as Indonesian nationals not resident in Indonesia.
3. Nothing in this Agreement shall entitle an individual who is a resident of a Contracting State and whose income from the other Contracting State consists solely of dividends, interest or royalties (or solely of any combination thereof) to the personal allowances, reliefs and deductions of the kind referred to in this Article for the purposes of taxation in that other Contracting State.

Article 27 NON-DISCRIMINATION

1. The nationals of a Contracting State shall not be subjected in the other Contracting State to any taxation or any requirement connected therewith which is other or more burdensome than the taxation and connected requirements to which nationals of that other State in the same circumstances are or may be subjected.
2. The taxation on a permanent establishment which an enterprise of a Contracting State has in the other Contracting State shall not be less favorably levied in that other State than the taxation levied on enterprises of that other State carrying on the same activities.
3. Enterprises of a Contracting State, the capital of which is wholly or partly owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by one or more residents of the other Contracting State, shall not be subjected in the first-mentioned Contracting State to any taxation or any requirement connected therewith which is other or more burdensome than the taxation and connected requirements to which other similar enterprises of that first-mentioned State are or may be subjected.
4. Nothing contained in this Article shall be construed:
 - (a) as obliging either Contracting State to grant to individuals not resident in that State any of the personal allowances, reliefs and reductions for tax purposes which are granted to individuals so resident; or
 - (b) as being applicable to any tax of a preferential nature which a Contracting State may impose in pursuance of its program of economic development and which the competent authorities of the Contracting States agree should be excluded from the provisions of this Article.

Article 28

MUTUAL AGREEMENT PROCEDURE

1. Where a resident of a Contracting State considers that the actions of one or both of the Contracting States results or will result for him in taxation not in accordance with this Agreement, he may, notwithstanding the remedies provided by the national laws of those States, present his case to the competent authority of the Contracting State of which he is a resident.
2. The competent authority shall endeavor, if the objection appears to it to be justified and if it is not itself able to arrive at an appropriate solution, to resolve the case by mutual agreement with the competent authority of the other Contracting State, with a view to the avoidance of taxation not in accordance with the Agreement.
3. The competent authorities of the Contracting States shall endeavor to resolve by mutual agreement any difficulties or doubts arising as to the interpretation or application of the Agreement.
4. The competent authorities of the Contracting States may communicate with each other directly for the purpose of reaching an agreement in the sense of the preceding paragraphs.

The competent authorities of the Contracting States shall exchange such information (being information which is at their disposal under their respective taxation laws in the normal course of administration) as is necessary for carrying out the provisions of this Agreement or for the prevention of fraud or the administration of statutory provisions against legal avoidance in relation to the taxes which are the subject of this Agreement. Any information so exchanged shall be treated as secret but may be disclosed to persons (including a court or administrative body) concerned with assessment, collection, enforcement or prosecution in respect of taxes which are the subject of this Agreement. No information shall be exchanged which would disclose any trade, business, industrial or professional secret or any trade process.

Article 30

1. This Agreement may be extended, either in its entirety or with modifications, to any territory for whose international relations either Contracting State is responsible and which imposes taxes substantially similar in character to those to which this Agreement applies. Any such extension shall take effect from such date and subject to such modifications and conditions, including conditions as to termination, as may be specified and agreed between the Contracting State in notes to be exchanged through diplomatic channels.
